Maternal,
Child &
Adolescent
Health
Santa Barbara County
Public Health Department

Come learn about:

- what the Maternal, Child, and Adolescent Health program does under state and federal guidelines
- relevant data on the state of maternal and child health in our county from a current five-year federal assessment
- public health priorities for our county
- collaborations with other agencies
- other little-known but important programs of the public health department

Please come and bring your friends and colleagues to hear about this important topic.
