From Eve's Fair Hand

A Staged Reading

Throughout recorded history, women have been relegated to a role of submission and silence. Yet daring women spoke up... and wrote.

DramaDogs' staged reading of poetic and prose monologues:

Aphra Behn, George Sand, Virginia Woolf, and Vita Sackville-West by poet / playwright Terre Ouwehand with Amelia Bassano Lanier, Lady Mary Wroth, and connecting narrative by novelist / playwright Jinny Webber.
