

It's Always Local

Join us for a free lecture on how Direct Relief is making a difference for women in need with

Dean Axelrod

Associate Director for Partnerships & Philanthropy for Direct Relief

May 14, 2018 • 7pm

Goleta Public Library, Multipurpose Room

500 N Fairview Ave, Goleta

In his presentation, Dean will share the story of Direct Relief, underscoring their maternal and child health programs. Direct Relief is the 7th largest U.S. charity by revenue, providing humanitarian material medical aid to populations that are affected by poverty or emergency situations in the United States and around the world. Direct Relief earns a perfect 100 percent rating from Charity Navigator and a score of 100 percent in fundraising efficiency rating from Forbes. Direct Relief has also earned a 99 percent rating from Forbes for its charitable services as a percent of total expenses.

Free event hosted by AAUW Santa Barbara-Goleta Valley

